Why Kundli Milan (Horoscope Matching) is Fundamental in Sanatan Tradition

In Vedic matrimonial matchmaking, Kundli Matching (Kundali Milan) is an ancient scientific method of assessing emotional, mental, physical, and karmic compatibility between prospective partners. The traditional Ashtakoot Milan system evaluates 8 key dimensions carrying a total of 36 Gunas (Points) based on the prospective bride and groom's Janam Nakshatra and Moon Signs.

Guna Milan Score Interpretation: How Many Gunas Are Needed?

- Below 18 Gunas: Inauspicious (Match not recommended by classical rules).
- 18 to 24 Gunas: Moderate Compatibility (Acceptable; requires individual horoscope and planetary strength cross-verification).
- 25 to 32 Gunas: Highly Auspicious Match (Excellent harmony and marital prosperity).
- 33 to 36 Gunas: Outstanding & Rare Match (Exceptional spiritual and physical union).

Critical Doshas That Override Guna Points

Even with high Guna points (e.g., 28+), an astrologer must examine two crucial factors:

1. Nadi Dosha (0/8 Points): Occurs when both partners share the exact same Nadi (Aadi, Madhya, or Antya). If unmitigated by Nakshatra quarter cancellations, it can impact health or progeny. Vedic remedies include Maha Mrityunjaya Japa and Gold donation.
2. Mangal Dosha (Kuja Dosha): Placement of Mars in 1st, 2nd, 4th, 7th, 8th, or 12th house. If both charts have balanced Mars energy, the dosha stands automatically neutralized.
3. 7th House Lord & Venus/Jupiter Condition: The 7th house governs marriage. Benefic aspects on
