Indira Ekadashi Vrat Puja Vidhi

This Ekadashi comes in Shraddha Paksha and with its result the ancestors get salvation.

The pooja Vidhi of this Ekadashi is as follows:

1. Like other Ekadashi, its spiritual rites start from the day of Dashami. One should pray and worship God at home on Dashami and at noon time performs tarpan in the river.
2. After performing tarpan Vidhi of Shraddha, offer food to Brahmins and then, have your own meal. Keep in mind that one must not eat food after sunset on Dashami.
3. On Ekadashi, vow for the fast and take a bathing early in the morning.
4. Follow the same process of Shraddha Vidhi and contribution food to Brahmins on Ekadashi. After that, offer food to a cow, crow and dog as well.
5. Next day on Dwadashi, after worshipping God, offer food and contribution to Brahmins. Then, consume together with your family.

Indira Ekadashi Vrat Katha

During Satyuga, a king named Indersena ruled the city of Mahishmati. His parents had died. One night he dreamed that his parents were experiencing highly pain and sufferings in hell. The King got worried by the plight of his ancestors. He thought of ways to free them from the pain of hell. He discussed the dream with his advisers and Brahmin scholars who said - : O Rajan! If you do the fast of Indira Ekadashi along with your wife, then your ancestors will attain salvation. On this day, worship Lord Shaligram with Basil leaves, etc and offer food and donation to Brahmins needy people. With their blessings, your parents and forefathers will go to heaven.”

Following their advice, the King along with his wife performs the fast of Indira Ekadashi ritually. At night when he was sleeping, God appear and said to him - “Rajan! Your ancestors have attained salvation from the influence of your fast.” Since then only, the significance of Indira Ekadashi Vrat increased.
