Story of Vaishakha Amavasya

In spiritual scriptures, there is a story related to Vaishakha Amavasya. According to it, in pristine days, there was a Brahmin named Dharmvarna. He was a very spiritual person and valued hermits very well. Once he heard from a Saint that nothing is more holy and rewarding in Kalyuga than ruminating the name of Lord Vishnu. He assimilates this knowledge, abandoned cosmic life and took Sannyas, and started travelling. One day while travelling, he reached Pitru Loka. There, the forefather's of Dharmvarna were in lot of troubles. They told him, our situation is due to your rejection (Sannyas). Now there is no one to offer Pind Daan to us. But if you go back and start your family life, and increase descendant, then we can be relieved. Also, offer Pind Daan to us ritually on the day of Vaishakha Amavasya. Dharmvarna promised them that he will absolutely fulfill their wishes. So, he once again embraces the worldly life. On the day of Vaishakha Amavasya, he performs all the rituals for Pind Daan and thus, liberated his ancestors.
